For the next thirty days, beginning November 17th, we will give to every cash purchaser of $15 WORTH OF GOODS in our store a first-class, correct time-keeping.

Stem - Winding Watch!

This does NOT mean that we have increased the price of a single article in our store, but it DOES mean that we need cash and appreciate a good customer.

and wish to emphasize the fact that we do.

When you can beat these prices then we will be like the boy the calf ran over.

SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

We have simply thrown the bars down and say to you, come and take them; only leave us the first cost price. Many styles at one-half cost price. This is the greatest slaughter of all. Just think of it!

Snow — Winter — It looks as though winter had come indeed.
Dry and cold is the program.

Mrs. W. D. Duncan is still confined to her room.

The election is over. Visiting is the programme at present.

S. N. Moore, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, was in our community last week. He proposes moving to the vicinity of Pleasant Ridge in the near future.

Mrs. Fannie Edrington has returned to her home near Peytona after a visit of several weeks to Defoe, Grubridge and this community.

Jasper Hammons and family, of New Castle, Ky., have moved to C. W. Perkins' vacant house in this vicinity.

Wood-sawing at Mrs. Rintha Cook's to-day (Saturday); social to-night.

Mrs. John Fishback was the guest of Mrs. Margaret Jones on Monday.

This is the hog-killing season.
Eat and be merry.

Miss Lula B. Moore is paying an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. J. C. Deakins, of the Christiansburg vicinity.

The election passed off quietly at Jacksonville precinct. No landslide struck the proud old county of Shelby. The voters of this precinct marched with uplifted heads and cast their ballots in a solid mass for the Democratic nominees. One hundred ballots were cast—99 Democratic and 1 Republican.

Mrs. Bettie Moore visited the family of John Samples this week.

Rev. W. E. Powers received a unanimous call to the pastorate of Indian Fork Baptist Church on Saturday last. This is his second year. He will devote his time to this church the second and fourth Saturday and Sunday in each month.

CLOSE OBSERVER.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale
